

Employment and Building a Meaningful Day

Marsha

Join Marsha Threlkeld to look at employment best practices, tips for parents, landing a job, and building a meaningful daily schedule. Plus, there will be a breakout session for self advocates and students titled, "See Yourself Working" with Jaimie Laitinen and Kim Clevenger

March 18, 2009
5:30-8:30 p.m.
SNAP, Sequim Community School
220 West Alder St, Room 11e
Sequim, WA 98382

This workshop is FREE for parents & families of people with developmental disabilities in Clallam County –

PLEASE REGISTER!

Pizza will be delivered

Name _____
Address _____
Phone _____ E-mail _____

Mail or fax this to RSVP by March 11th, 2009 to: SNAP, 220 West Alder Street, Rm 11E, Sequim, WA 98382, email to snap@sequim.k12.wa.us, or call (360) 681-8642. Call (360) 417-2428 Willie Burer for mileage stipends (if driving over 30 miles)