

It may be re-runs on network TV, but it's a whole new season of "Olympia Insider"!!

Back for a third season, "Olympia Insider" hosts Ed Holen and Sue Elliott give you the inside scoop about what is happening in and behind Washington State's legislative scene.

The season's first podcast focuses on Advocacy Day which is held each Wednesday during legislative session. Upcoming segments will keep you informed about important issues that affect Washington's developmental disabilities community.

Accessing podcasts are easy. Just go to:

www.olympiainsider.org

Once there, you can view current podcasts as well as podcasts from previous years. You can even sign up to be notified when future podcasts are released.

Repeating episodes may be what you see on TV, but real life has no re-runs. So, go, bookmark, watch and learn, at "Olympia Insider" to see what you can do to help make change happen. As we say at "Olympia Insider":

"Change is made by those who show up."

Watch Olympia Insider at: www.olympiainsider.org