

Allison Ormsby was a great friend of mine

Allison Ormsby was a beautiful person. She had many talents, and a great sense of humor.

She had a beautiful smile, and loved horses and flowers.

Allison has been a member of SNAP for a few years. One day she painted a most lovely picture. Her fellow artist and friends collected money and we had it framed. We presented it to her family.

She sold one of her original paintings at the Lavender Festival, way to go Allison.

Allison was a very strong and brave person. She got real sick with breast cancer, and through it all she was a strong young woman. We miss Allison a whole lot, but now she has gone on to a better place where she is no longer in pain.

We all love and miss our friend who made us smile with her wonderful smile and quiet way. Allison, loved and never forgotten. Go to www.snapcc.org, click DDDetails.
